Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 5,19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The term 'preferably' renders the above claims unclear as to their exact scope.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-4,7,21,22,26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Watkins et al '184.

The patent to Watkins alludes to a pump that is to be connected to tube 29. The pump is considered to be inherently the same thing as the displacement structure set forth in applicant's claims. It is also obvious that the pump of Watkins functions in the same manner as the displacement structure called for in the claims. Further, it is considered to be inherent/obvious that the catheter is dimensioned to fit in the aorta of a human.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 6,8,10-20,23-25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claims 5,9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
